

ARKANSAS: Renewable Energy & Economic Benefits

Renewable Energy provides economic development and prosperity, increases reliability, and delivers clean power to Arkansas

The widespread integration of renewables has:

- Lowered consumers' energy costs
- Helped maintain grid reliability

The clean energy industry in Arkansas has invested:

$576 million

in capital
investments in Arkansas

$1.7 million

in local Arkansas
communities through property, state, and local tax benefits, annually.

$2.1 million

in annual land lease
payments to farmers
and landowners

1,700

Arkansas jobs

Renewable Energy & Economic Benefits to America

Renewable Energy is a reliable, drought-proof, high-yield cash crop that diversifies income portfolios

Increasing renewable energy development ensures we keep rural America rural, yet open for economic prosperity

Solar and wind farms not only generate clean, reliable, low-cost electricity, but also stimulate the economy through taxes, land lease payments, and capital investments

The reliable clean energy industry in America has invested:

$474 billion
in capital
investments in the USA

$1.6 billion
in local Arkansas
communities through
property, state, and local
tax benefits, annually.

$1.6 billion
in annual land lease
payments to farmers
and landowners

460,200
Family-supporting jobs

Source: American Clean Power "Clean Power IQ" Search <https://cleanpoweriq.cleanpower.org/>.