Solar power in North Dakota

Solar power has become a low-cost source of electricity generation in North Dakota, providing new jobs, new businesses, and new economic development in the state. Locals benefit from powering the economy with solar energy.

Key Facts

- 90% Decrease in the cost of solar since 2009
- 52nd in the nation for installed solar
- 0.44 MW Installed solar capacity in ND
- $1.72 M Total solar investment in ND

More and more utilities, corporations and the general public want electricity produced from clean, renewable energy, including solar.

- 8 North Dakota solar companies
- 0% of ND powered by solar energy
- 257 Solar jobs in North Dakota
- 41 Homes powered by solar power

Solar is a new cash crop for farmers. Solar power only takes up a small amount of land and provides a new source of income for landowners and rural communities.