SOLAR POWER IN MINNESOTA

Solar power has become a low-cost source of electricity generation in Minnesota, providing new jobs, new businesses, and new economic development in the state. Locals benefit from powering the economy with solar energy.

54% Decrease in the cost of solar since 2013

1,782MW Installed solar capacity in MN

$2.7B Total solar investment in MN

16th in the nation for installed solar

More and more utilities, corporations and the general public are transitioning to clean energy, renewable energy, including solar.

168 Minnesota solar companies

3.86% of MN powered by solar energy

4,643 Solar jobs in Minnesota

238,146 Homes powered by solar energy

Solar is a new cash crop for farmers. Solar power only takes up a small amount of land and provides a new source of income for landowners and rural communities.